LETTER FROM THE GOVERNOR - DAN ENGLEBRIGHT

Hope everyone had a great Thanksgiving. I would like to thank everyone who came out to support our Valued Veterans on Veteran's Day. We had a great turnout and we will do it again in April. Thanks to all our veterans and those who are now serving for your service.

Now it is time to move on to the Christmas season. The Lodge looks great with all the Christmas decorating that was done. Thanks to all who came out and helped make the Lodge look so nice. You all do a fantastic job.

In addition to our regular events such as the 2nd Friday night buffet and Steak night, we want to continue to try new events. One of the new events will be the Sock Hop on December 2nd. Les Rosiere will be hosting this night from 7 – 10 pm. Sounds like a good time and be sure to wear your best 50s, 60s and 70s wardrobe.

A lot of Christmas events going on at the Lodge. The Women of the Moose will be holding the children's Christmas Party on Dec. 2nd. Unique Twist will be here along with games, hotdogs and of course Santa. The kid's shop night will be held on Friday the 8th. Again, this is hosted by the Women of the Moose. Don't like going out on New Year's Eve? We will be holding a pre New Year's Eve Party on Saturday, December 30th. Be sure to sign up in the Social Quarters if you plan on attending. Music will be provided by Brian Dennison.

As most of you have noticed, we have had a Christmas tree in the Social Quarters with tags on it. This is to support our Christmas dinner for the less fortunate in our community. We also have a basket of liquor and wine we are raffling off. Please support these two fundraising activities so that we can continue to help a few families who are in need this Christmas. Our Helping Hands Committee will be hosting these families on December 17th. We provide a meal, hats & gloves, Aldi gift certificates and of course gifts for the kids. For some, these are the only gifts they will receive this Christmas. Thanks in advance for your help.

I hope everyone has a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Thanks for being a Moose and I'll see you at the Lodge.
Dan

Community Service

This month we are sending donations to Crisis Nursery, Schramm School, Tazewell Cty Children's Advocacy Center, Gold Star Families and Lion's club. Please remember to send in your community service hours, miles and donations for our reports. Thanks for all you do. Happy Holidays from your Community Service Committee.

Letter from the Sr. Regent

Merry Xmas and a very Happy New Year Women of the Moose

Hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving.

Here are the dates for the December meetings - Thursday December 7 at 7.00pm and Thursday December 21 at 7.00pm.

Please join us on December 21st for our Xmas get together after the meeting. Bring a snack to share.

Buffet and Bake sale night is December 8th. This is also shop nite for the kids from 5.00pm until 7.00pm.

Come out and have a great dinner and let the kids do their Xmas shopping.

I am happy to say that we have a new sunshine child. Her name is Nadia Martinez and she is 14 years old. Her birthday is December 19th and we are having a card party for her. Please take a minute to send her a card to welcome her and wish her Happy Birthday. Her address is on the Women's bulletin board. Her picture is also on the wall in the entrance way.

At the time of writing this we have not had the lunch with Santa, but I am sure it was a great success.

Once again have a great Xmas and all the very best for 2018.
